25	MET BACK BAY	The MET Restaurant Group is bringing back its iconic “Boston Hot Chocolate Experience” just in time for the holiday season! Now synonymous with the holiday season, the Boston Hot Chocolate Experience is presented in a flight of four miniature glasses and hosts four distinct flavors for chocolate lovers including: Classic Hot Chocolate - featuring Vanilla Chocolate, whipped cream and mini toasted marshmallows, Mexican Hot Chocolate – with Cinnamon Chocolate, whipped cream, a cinnamon stick and grated Taza Guajillo Chili Chocolate, Salted Caramel Mocha - with Espresso, Vanilla, whipped cream and a biscotti and finally, White Chocolate Peppermint Hot Chocolate – featuring white chocolate, crushed peppermint stick, vanilla cream & candy cane. Each flavor can be upgraded to an “adult version” with additions like, Bailey’s, Espresso Liqueur, Amaretto and White Crème de Menthe. If hot cocoa lovers find that they are in the mood for just one, MET Restaurant Group has that covered. Customers can order any flavor as the “One Big One” presentation. The Boston Hot Chocolate Experience will be available beginning Friday, November 25th, 2016 and will continue until spring 2017.	279 Dartmouth Street Boston, MA 02116 617.267.0451

Like both, Reinhardt's greatest gift was turning sheer virtuosity into exuberant showmanship. It wasn't just that he could leave a crowd breathless with a dazzling run along the guitar neck, but that his remarkable sense of composition and context could command an audience's attention. Like Armstrong, Django held the crowd like a magnet; now imagine a stage filled with six contemporary Reinhardt descendants, and you'll get a sense that the collective talent pool on the bandstand is larger than the Arc de Triomphe. - Will Friewald	400 SOLDIERS FIELD ROAD BOSTON, MA 617.562.4111	8:00PM & 17:00PM

1	PLIMOTH PLANTATION	Plimoth Plantation is a must-see New England destination less than an hour south of Boston and minutes from Cape Cod. Our staff and exhibits tell the rich and complex story of 17th-century Plymouth Colony and its shared history with the Pilgrims and Native people. Experience the 17th-Century English Village, the Wampanoag Homesite, Mayflower II at the State Pier, the working Plimoth Grist Mill and our Craft Center, where artisans practice historical trades and skills in a modern setting. Savor a visit to the Plimoth Bread Company where bakers use traditional techniques. You'll also find museum shops full of unique items, a café, and a cinema showing independent films twice daily. Come have a great time in another time! Open 7 days a week from 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.	137 Warren Ave, Plymouth, MA 02360 (508) 746-1622	9:00AM - 5:00PM
