While at Manhattan School of Music, Clifton began freelancing around New York City and made his first record date with Carlos Garnett in 1976. By his senior year at Manhattan he had established himself as one of the young "in demand" trombonists in New York. It was around that time that Slide Hampton formed the original "World of Trombones", the group that would become the standard by which all jazz trombone choirs were measured. Clifton played alongside jazz trombone greats such as Janice Robinson, Steve Turre, Curtis Fuller and Benny Powell while part of this prestigious group.	400 SOLDIERS FIELD ROAD BOSTON, MA 617.562.4111	8:00PM

20	MET BACK BAY	The MET Restaurant Group is bringing back its iconic “Boston Hot Chocolate Experience” just in time for the holiday season! Now synonymous with the holiday season, the Boston Hot Chocolate Experience is presented in a flight of four miniature glasses and hosts four distinct flavors for chocolate lovers including: Classic Hot Chocolate - featuring Vanilla Chocolate, whipped cream and mini toasted marshmallows, Mexican Hot Chocolate – with Cinnamon Chocolate, whipped cream, a cinnamon stick and grated Taza Guajillo Chili Chocolate, Salted Caramel Mocha - with Espresso, Vanilla, whipped cream and a biscotti and finally, White Chocolate Peppermint Hot Chocolate – featuring white chocolate, crushed peppermint stick, vanilla cream & candy cane. Each flavor can be upgraded to an “adult version” with additions like, Bailey’s, Espresso Liqueur, Amaretto and White Crème de Menthe. If hot cocoa lovers find that they are in the mood for just one, MET Restaurant Group has that covered. Customers can order any flavor as the “One Big One” presentation. The Boston Hot Chocolate Experience will be available beginning Friday, November 25th, 2016 and will continue until spring 2017.	279 Dartmouth Street Boston, MA 02116 617.267.0451

Freddie Bryant's KALEIDOSCOPE TRIO finds inspiration in rhythms from around the world. His past CDs have often featured Brazilian, Latin and African rhythms. This set of music from his CD Live Grooves...Epic Tales also draws from these traditions but adds a healthy taste of American roots with soulful Gospel grooves, Blues and funky New Orleans rhythms on his Telecaster as well as a driving Indian/Middle-Eastern tour-de-force played on his 12-string guitar. The show clearly defines Freddie's interpretation of a musical kaleidoscope – each song is another colorful collage of rhythmic grooves and guitar timbres that will make you want to dance.	400 SOLDIERS FIELD ROAD BOSTON, MA 617.562.4111	8:00PM

For centuries, stars have fascinated us, guided us and provided us with nighttime illumination and splendor. Screen Shot 2017-07-30 at 1.45.53 PM.png (1) Star Light, Star Bright The abundance of bright lights and tall buildings has made star gazing for city dwellers difficult at best and often pretty much impossible. But fear not, urban amateur astronomers and celestial connoisseurs, Boston Harbor Cruises and the Museum of Science have teamed up to bring you the Sea the Starry Starry Night Onboard our high-speed catamaran, we'll travel to where the city lights and congestion are just a bright memory for a star gazing opportunity like no other in the city. Cruise highlights include: Three-hour cruise aboard a high-speed catamaran from Long Wharf, Boston Expert commentary and star identification from Museum of Science Astronomy Educators Narration on the history and importance of celestial navigation – how sailors used the stars Related video and content Plenty of outdoor viewing space Comfortable indoor seating Cash Bar and snacks available onboard	Long Wharf Boston, MA 02179 617-223-8178
