Wet Your Lips With These 4 Pride Cocktails

Wet your lips, take a sip, and sway your hips. Horchata, The Skylark, Hotel Chantelle, and Boston's Lookout Rooftop and Bar are coming together to offer rainbow inspired cocktails that'll add some alcoholic flair to your Pride festivities—with some going the extra mile. LESS—

At Horchata in New York's Greenwich Village and the Lookout Rooftop and Bar in Boston, you can drink with pride knowing that 50% of the proceeds are being donated to the Ali Forney Center and the Human Rights Campaign. Yes, this means you'll be donating to a good cause while you drunkenly sing your rendition of "Born This Way" to a crowded bar.

What can you expect to find mixed into cocktails like the "Juliet & Juliet" or "The Proud Pomarita?" Click through to find out all the dirty details for your shaken (not stirred) cocktails.

Juliet & Juliet

2 oz. Cacahca, 1/2 oz. Lemon Juice, 1/2 oz. Simple Syrup, 1/2 oz. Tangerine Fruitations, 1 Egg White.

Lookout Rooftop and Bar will be donating 50 percent of the proceeds from this cocktail to The Human Rights Campaign, the largest LGBTQ civil rights advocacy group and political lobbying organization in the United States.
